

Brothers and Sisters at the Chamber, “We must accept finite disappointment but never lose infinite hope”- Martin Luther King Jr. Wish you all, a Happy Diwali, a Prosperous New Year and, to the international readers, a Happy Thanksgiving. This is my first communication to you through the medium of this excellent initiative of the Chamber. I assumed charge on 4th July 2020, but through this International Tax Journal, this is my first communication to you. I am indeed very thankful to each of you for having entrusted me with this duty of leading the Chamber for the year 2020-21 and I hope I live up to your expectations in this very unusual year. As we deal with the dreaded Corona virus, I am reminded of the above quote. It is indeed laudable that mankind, despite not having witnessed something of this magnitude, for almost a century, has never given up hope and today, as per the media reports, we are indeed
