

Dear Chamber Family, I am truly humbled, feeling extremely blessed, and deeply honored as I communicate to you all for the first time through this prestigious Journal of this august institution: "The Chamber of Tax Consultants". I am privileged to be elected as the 45th President of the Chamber in the 95th year of its meaningful existence. I thank each one of you for having reposed your confidence in me and believing that I can be at the helm of affairs of the Chamber. I am feeling overwhelmed with pride that I am stepping into the shoes of some of the greatest legends of the profession who had lead the Chamber as President in the past. I am conscious of the responsibility that I am required to carry ahead. I am, however, confident that with the guidance and wisdom of the past presidents and other senior members, zealous, energetic, and committed performance of the Managing Council Members and Core Group members, and support and forbearance
